No. C 12-02506 LB

ORDER REGARDING CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL IN ORDER DECIDING PLAINTIFFS'
MOTION FOR CLASS
CERTIFICATION, U.S. BANK'S
MOTION TO DISMISS FOR LACK OF SUBJECT-MATTER
JURSDICTION, AND U.S. BANK'S
MOTION FOR JUDGMENT ON THE PLEADINGS REGARDING BACKDATING

The court's order deciding Plaintiffs' motion for class certification and U.S. Bank's motions references certain information previously designated confidential by U.S. Bank and ASIC. The court files two versions: a modestly-redacted public record order and an unredacted order filed under seal (a copy of which will be emailed to lead counsel).

Defendants' counsel must review the redactions (which appear only on pages 3 through 5) and determine what should remain under seal under Civil Local Rule 79-5, given the strong presumption of access to judicial records. See Kamakama v. City and Cnty. Of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 117, 1178 (9th Cir. 2006). Within two business days, they must file under seal their proposed public version of the order with the proposed redactions highlighted and must submit the appropriate declarations in support of their redactions. Within two business days of Defendants' filing, Plaintiffs must file any 1 objections (again supported by any appropriate declarations).

2 If the parties do not submit proposed redactions, the court will file the unredacted order in seven
3 days from the date of this order.
